In-Text Citation

None to claim their bones New York Times Old Brooklyn, p. 34. Ratde (1888, April 2). www.nytimes.com/

List the source by title in your reference list. Alphabetize reference list entries beginning with a title.

("None to Claim Their Bones," 1888)

In cases where the title contains a colon, use only the text before the colon in your in-text citation.

Titles

Capitalization: For all sources other than periodicals (that is, newspapers, magazines, and scholarly journals), capitalize the first word of the title and subtitle and proper nouns only. Do not capitalize the rest (see example below).

All major words in periodical titles should be capitalized (for example, Psychology Today, Journal of Health Care for the Poor and Underserved).

)

Italics: Titles are italicized for the following items:

- Books

- E-Books
- Periodicals
- Web sites
- Dissertations/theses
- Reports/technical papers
- Works of art

Source Example

Journal article title

Freud's Vienna revisited.

Book title
